Managing Partner, George Hawkins, was quick to stress that these promotions were a testament to hard work and commitment. "As a firm, we are only ever as good as our people, so it's important that we nurture young talent and recognize and reward hard work. These individuals have demonstrated an outstanding level of performance and commitment. Their promotions will position our firm for growth while ensuring that our client service remains second to none."

Anna Johnson joined Gainer, Donnelly & Desroches, LLP in 1996 and has over eighteen years of experience in public accounting. She focuses on individuals, trusts, estates and small businesses. She has a wide range of clients including physicians, athletes, architects, attorneys and a variety of other privately held companies. Alyssa Hill has been with the firm since 2007 and has over fifteen years of experience in public accounting. She has significant non-profit and governmental audit experience and has served a variety of clients in the manufacturing industry. Michelle Barry has over fourteen years of industry and public accounting experience. Ruth Wrye has been working in public accounting for over twenty years. Roger Ledbetter, Kristi Gibb, Tabatha Urech, Cody Tornberg, and Chrissy Wilson join ten other supervisors within the firm.

Gainer, Donnelly & Desroches, LLP, the tenth largest certified public accounting firm in Houston, provides highly personalized tax, business planning and advisory services to businesses and individuals across all industries with special expertise in construction, wholesale & distribution, manufacturing, not-for-profit, employee benefit plans, high net worth and real estate.
