Sam Gainer

Gainer Donnelly & Desroches is proud to have been selected by the Small Business Community Association for their 2010 'Best of Business Award' in the Tax Return Preparation Services category.

Gainer, Donnelly & Desroches, LLP, has provided highly personalized financial, tax, auditing and value added consulting services to businesses and individuals for over six decades. According to the Houston Business Journal, they are the tenth largest firm in the Houston area, with ten partners and a staff of more than 140 professionals. They were recently featured in the Top 200 firms in the U.S. by Inside Public Accounting and were voted one of the Top 3 firms in Houston by Texas Lawyer Magazine.

The firm began business as W. Dawson Carter, CPA in 1948. When Mr. Carter retired in 1978, the firm became known as Sam Gainer & Associates. Gainer, Donnelly & Desroches, L.C., was formed in January 1993. Effective January 1, 2004, Gainer, Donnelly & Desroches, L.C., converted to Gainer, Donnelly & Desroches, L.L.P.

At GD&D they serve a diverse clientele from multinational corporations with gross revenues in excess of $1 billion to small business owners and individuals. Fundamental to their methodology is a focus on market sectors. They believe that value is added when they truly understand their clients and the industries in which they operate. GD&D specialize in high net worth, construction, wholesale/retail, manufacturing, healthcare, finance/regulated ind., nonprofit, employee benefit plans, real estate, oil & gas, professional services, and small businesses. This in-depth knowledge of relevant industries and their processes enables them to create effective solutions, and to contribute to their clients' business transformation and improvements in their customer's economic performance.

They believe that their people are their greatest asset. In order to preserve that asset, they provide a superior workplace, with excellent technology, professional development and benefits. This philosophy has produced excellent results. GD&D is also an independent member firm of IGAF Worldwide. Through their membership they have access to an international association of outstanding local and regional firms worldwide that provide quality accounting, tax and consulting expertise to help meet the global business needs of their clients.

Finally, GD&D strives to give back to their community. In addition to providing tax, audit and consulting services to more than 100 qualified charities, all of their partners serve as volunteers in the nonprofit community, many for more than one entity. Their firm also donates 1% of gross revenue every quarter to charities through their Employee-Directed Charitable Giving Program. As part of their commitment to the community, GD&D donated over $200,000 in 2010; some of the recipients include:

- National Association of Black Accountants
- The Chinquapin School
- Camp For All Foundation
- Including Kids, Inc.
- Hope Stone
- Cherish our Children International
- Epilepsy Foundation of Texas
- Texas Accountants & Lawyers for the Arts
- The Pink Ribbon Project
- PTSD Foundation of America
- Teach for America
- ARC of Greater Houston
